How do families handle the financial aspects of final arrangements?

To ease the financial burden of arrangements, Skorupski's accepts verified life insurance policies that can be assigned to our funeral home to cover the various costs of funeral merchandise, professional services, flowers, keepsakes, catering, cemetery charges, clergy, and other outside third-party incidental expenses selected by your family. In order for our office to verify coverage, simply provide us with the following information, and we'll handle the rest:

- Your loved one's full name
- Your loved one's date of birth
- Your loved one's Social Security No.
- Life Insurance Company Name
- Policy Number (if available)
- Employer Name (if applicable)
- Beneficiary Listed (if known)
- Original Policy (or photo of most recent statement if original policy cannot be found)
- Issue Date of Policy
- Are there any loans against the policy?

For those families not utilizing life insurance, for your convenience, we accept the following forms of payment:

- Pre-Arranged Skorupski Plan
- Pre-Arranged Plan from Another Funeral Home
- Cash
- Check
- Cashier's Check
- All Major Credit Cards (+3% Merchant Processing Fee)
- Approved Payment Plan via LendingUSA

Due to the length of time and uncertainty involved, Skorupski's does not bill estates for future payment. A paid in full statement will be provided to the purchaser for a claim to be submitted to the estate. Please Note: Life insurance policies under two years old are unable to be used for payment.

Your family's payment preference will be decided at the time of your planning meeting. A Skorupski representative will discuss the above mentioned payment options with your family during the planning meeting.

They were infinitely helpful at an awful time. This is who you want when the worst happens. I hope to not need their services for a long time, but when I do, it's them I'll call.

Skorupski's staff were so accommodating and easy to work with in our difficult time. The service for my brother was perfect I know he was smiling down on us from heaven. I don't wish this experience on anyone but if the unimaginable happens to your loved one I would highly recommend Skorupski's. Thank you Beth and Spencer.

Everyone with Skorupski Funeral home went above and beyond to make our family feel comfortable. I've never felt so at ease during a time of loss and grief, than I have while coordinating with Skorupski. I felt that the passing of my loved one would have made making arrangements unbearable, but they are all so understanding and accommodating. Thank you for all of the extras you put into making this difficult time easier for my family.

Spencer's Story

OUR HUMBLE BEGINNINGS: After attending the funeral of his grandfather at the age of 12, Spencer A. Skorupski realized care to the dead and service to the living was his life's calling. He began volunteering at a local funeral home at the age of 14 washing cars and dusting caskets. Spencer completed his apprenticeship in the Metro Detroit area and graduated as Class President from the Cincinnati College of Mortuary Science, the country's oldest school of its type. At the young age of 22, Spencer returned to his hometown area of Bay City to begin his practice in March of 2013. With a $10,000 interest free loan from his father, Spencer was determined to succeed. At that time, Spencer was the youngest funeral home owner in the State of Michigan. Our reputation at Skorupski's has been earned, not inherited. We are humbled to be the area's most highly recommended provider of cremations and burials. Under Spencer's leadership, the firm expanded in 2019 with the acquisition of Reitz-Herzberg Funeral Home in Saginaw Twp. Later in 2020, our brand new Bay County Facility came to fruition, allowing for an additional 5,000 square feet of gathering space and many more much needed parking spaces. Family owned and family focused, Skorupski's continues to provide compassionate care to families in need before, during, and after losing a loved one under the guidance and leadership of our founder, owner, and "Chief Visionary," Spencer A. Skorupski. Retaining only the highest caliber of employees, The Skorupski Team is known for their sincerity, meticulous attention to detail, and meaningful personalization of ceremonies. We are available to assist and guide your family 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
